Customer Problem Statement

PS-1	A student	Understand difficult topics and complete study tasks independently	Teacher/tutor support is not always available when needed	Stuck, frustrated, and uncertain
PS-2	A student preparing for assessments	Practice with questions and check understanding	Creating good quizzes manually takes time	Less confident about preparation
PS-3	A student with lengthy notes	Quickly identify the important points	Reading and summarizing all material is time-consuming	Overwhelmed and time-pressured
PS-4	A self-directed learner	Follow a structured learning sequence	It is difficult to know what to learn first and next	Unsure about learning direction

Consolidated Problem Statement

Students need accessible, on-demand academic assistance for explanations, questions, summaries, quizzes, and learning paths. Existing general-purpose tools are not organized around these structured academic workflows, while teacher/tutor support may be unavailable outside scheduled interaction times.
